Comparative cost and preferred method

Reading a stored shape entry takes $O(1)$ metadata operations. Counting all 24 scalar entries is unnecessary and answers a different question. The standard array operation is already the preferable method.