Direct evaluation needs n^2 modular weighted terms; the FFT needs $\Theta(n \log n)$ word operations once p, w are given. Part (a)'s prime search and finding a generator are not included in that conditional cost. The modulus-17 example is an exact arithmetic check, not a benchmark of asymptotic speed.