Each proof treats all finite samples. Part (a)'s quadratic form can be evaluated in $O(m)$ operations instead of $O(m^2)$ pairwise evaluations. Part (b)'s integral certificate proves sign but does not supply a finite exact evaluation algorithm for arbitrary points. NDS must not be confused with ordinary negative semidefiniteness on unrestricted coefficient vectors.